Focusing on ICT, UMN arranges ICT-based curriculums for all programs. UMN students are provided with knowledge about and are oriented to the development of ICT for them to be ready to face industrial changes or even to make the changes.

WELCOME TO UNIVERSITAS MULTIMEDIA NUSANTARA

UMN Joint-Degree Program

To improve the quality of education and increase students' competitiveness in the global job market, UMN collaborated with international universities and initiated a Joint-Degree Program.

A Joint-Degree Program is an academic program where UMN students can receive degrees from domestic and foreign higher education institutions. The joint degree program allows students to study for several semesters at UMN and complete the rest of their semesters overseas at the chosen foreign partner university.

Through this program, students will be able to receive unique learning experiences at home and abroad, acquire various skills, broaden their network internationally, and open up their opportunities for an international career.

UMN Student Exchange Program

The Student Exchange Program is a program that allows UMN students to study at UMN partner universities abroad. In its development, UMN students can also study in other domestic universities within the scope of the Merdeka Belajar Kampus Merdeka program. The program usually lasts one semester, although it does not rule out the possibility of lasting two semesters to a year.

The program aims to provide students with valuable academic, social, and cultural experiences and help them build networks in domestic and foreign environments. The Student Exchange Program also provides the opportunity for international students to learn about the Indonesian culture and education system.
